SPECIAL POINT OF INTEREST

The design of the newest edition of the HCHNA newsletter has changed! This is based on some feedback that the newsletter should match the age of the neighborhood and its beautiful homes; therefore, a new template was created and is being piloted.

COLLEGE HILL HOME TOUR

On Saturday, June 8, from 1:00-5:00 pm, the College Hill Neighborhood was able to show the community the benefits of living in a historic home through the home tour. To coincide with the Maryville College bicentennial, the tour showcased 6 houses with strong ties to the college; generally, homes that were built and/or lived in by professors or other dignitaries for the college.

The homes on the tour this year included:

- Casablanca, currently owned by Dr. Proffitt
- Gray Tower, currently owned by the Luttrell's
- The Wright House, currently owned by Maryville College
- The Little House, currently

owned by Margie Ribble

- Dr. Hunter's House, currently owned by the Volk's
- The Chilhowee Club, currently owned by Maryville College.

The Home Tour was advertised by WBIR, with commentary by Mayor Tom Taylor and Welcome Chair Chris Hackler. The interviews were filmed in the McNaughton's home and a link to the segment can be found here:

Over 100 people came out on a rainy, humid day to tour and learn a little more about the history behind these historic homes. The Neighborhood Association earned over $1300 for hosting the home tour; this money will be placed in the account to extend neighborhood activities. A big thank you to everyone who participated on the planning committee, manned one of the houses or opened their house for the public.

THE POWER OF FLOWERS

Recently a small group of volunteers, led by Nan Taylor, met at the College Hill Park to plant flowers that are resistant to the summer heat. Thanks to all who helped make our park look fantastic, including Nan Taylor, Victoria and Chelsea Read and Jeff and Chrissy

McNaughton.

Keep an eye out for future notifications to prepare the landscaping in the park for fall!

HCHNA YARD SALE HIGHLIGHTS

The annual community yard sale was held in April. Of course, the weather was horrible, with it raining most of Saturday morning. Still, we had a good turnout and people were interested in shopping and buying.

Over 10 houses participated in the yard sale, selling everything from antiques to clothing to furniture and other housewares.

For the second straight year, the McNaughton's held the sale that benefitted the HCHNA; a big thank you to the Hackler's for not only picking up various donated items for the community sale but also spending their day with the McNaughton's greeting shoppers and raising money for the association.

The association made $224 from the sale, which will be added to the account and spent in the neighborhood.

All remaining items were donated to a church organization, where they will be put to good use in our community.

Thank you to everyone who participated, either by hosting a sale or contributing to the HCHNA sale. We will host the next yard sale in the Spring of 2020.

COMMUNITY GOALS

Around this time each year, especially with the longer days and the sunshine, I am reminded how important community really is. We all call this beautiful neighborhood home and yet there are some people that I have never met or that I only see in passing. While this is understandable as we all lead very busy lives, it struck me as a reminder to get out and interact in the community. Say hello when you pass someone on the sidewalk, introduce yourself and ask them how they are doing. Watch the neighborhood and report any suspicious activity. It takes the work of all to build a community and that is the shared goal for the Historic College Hills Neighborhood...a community where no one is a stranger and we are all working on a shared goal of encouraging community spirit and good will. We just need to find common interests— one being that we have all chosen this wonderful community to set down roots and live.

Remember, it takes a village and your neighbors are depending on you.

WHAT IS THE HCHNA?

The Historic College Hills Neighborhood Association (HCHNA) is a social club that was formed to support neighborhood comradery and community among residents living in the historic district. The Association is responsible for sponsoring all social activities conducted throughout the year (i.e., Progressive Dinner, Freedom Picnic and Fall Gathering) as well as the Neighborhood Cleanup, Luminary display and flags on the Fourth of July.

All of our activities are funded through annual dues, which are $35/year per household. This is a great value for all of the activities provided throughout the year. While the dues are not mandatory, it does allow participants to get to know their neighbors and make lasting friendships.

So you can think of the neighborhood Association as a kind of social club; we provide continuity to the and have a lot of fun doing it. Please consider joining the association and join us in all the fun!

F R E E D O M P I C N I C

The annual Freedom Picnic was held on Saturday, June 1 at the College Hill Park in the neighborhood. Hot dogs and hamburgers were provided, residents brought side dishes and desserts and a lot of fun was had by all. There were water activities for the kids, as well as corn hole, sidewalk chalk and the playground equipment.

Jennifer Hackler won the home-

Every once in a while, we like to highlight people and/or companies that have provided great services to us in the historic district. Since many of our houses need extra special care, it can be difficult to trust someone with your home projects. This forum celebrates those that have performed great services in the hopes they can be of use to others in the neighborhood.

Then first person for a shout out is Tom Farrell. Of Caulk 'n' Roll Tom has performed a variety of work for the neighborhood– he painted the outside of Ryan Smith's house on Court Street and recently, performed some work for the McNaughton's. Tom pressured washed the sidewalks and pavers of their house on Court Street and also is completing some painting, including the entire side of their house and the prepping and painting of their front porch. Tom can be reached at the following number for any painting or pressure washing work you may need.

Laura Hasson, the current Social Chair, has recently expressed interest in stepping down from the HCHNA Board once her term is up. This will leave an opening in the Board.

The Social Chair is responsible for organizing all social activities approved by the Board; these include coming up with the theme for the Progressive Dinner, the Freedom Picnic and the Fall Gathering. Time is spent designing and sending invitations, organizing logistics and ensuring each event is set up and food is available.

Laura is willing to mentor the next Social Chair so if you are interested, please let a Board member know and we will facilitate the transition. There is ample time to learn the activities, so if you are an organizer and a planner and this Board Chair sounds interesting, the Social Chair may be for you!

Additionally, as part of the Board, you will have a direct say in the activities occurring in the community. It is a fun opportunity!
